NEW CHINESE BILL.

The Indians and the Chinese. Are They the Same Race of People?

Some Surprising Historical Proofs of a New Theory.

[Portland (Or.) Daily Oregonian.]

There have recently been put out some startling theories in relation to the native races of the Pacific Coast that may have a tendency to throw some light on a frequently mooted question, and that is—the origin of the aborigines of America, a race of people who have been the close study of the white race ever since the landing of Christopher Columbus in 1492. Lately the people of the Pacific Coast have had their thoughts most seriously turned toward another race, whose history, circumstances and habits have been the theme of a warm and earnest discussion in both branches of the National Congress. There can be no doubt that Congress and the President ought to have heeded the unanimous voice of the people of the Pacific Coast—the voice that came from the press as well as from the rostrum, the work bench and from the farm. But it is not for the purpose of discussing "The Chinese Question" in this form that we have commenced this article, but to put forth the theory that the two races we have been discussing, viz: the Indian and the Chinese, have the same origin. Some time since the writer of this article had an interview with the venerable Rev. Josiah L. Parrish, now of Salem. Mr. Parrish is one of the oldest living of the pioneer Methodist missionaries sent out from the East to the Oregon wilds to teach the Indians the one true God. Mr. Parrish early acquired their language, and has been studying their habits for forty years. For a long time he was the Indian agent of the United States Government, and acted as interpreter and negotiator for the government in many treaties made with the Indians. Mr. Parrish most emphatically believes in the theory that the Indians of North America were originally Asiatics. His idea is that they not only came across the frozen sea at Behring's Straits in the Winter, but that many Chinamen, voyagers on the ocean in junks, were driven out of their course by storms, and finally, in their efforts to return home, wandered on the trackless ocean to the Oregon and Washington coast. The spirit of wild venture, or the great desire for discovery, may have led some of these bolder Celestials to fit out expeditions for the express purpose of seeking the unknown shore stretching beyond their vast sea. Once reaching these shores, the unexpectedly great distance deterred them from ever attempting to return. More likely than this, their weak and frail crafts were dashed to pieces in the angry waves of our coast. Mr. Parrish says that old wrecks of Chinese junks were seen on our coast that, by their appearance, must have been thousands of years old when first discovered by white men. Beeswax in large quantities, and other imperishable articles, have been found imbedded in the sands of the coast, a portion of the cargo of some of the castaway junks. Mr. Parrish exhibited to us, while on our visit to him, several baskets, hats and other articles worked in grasses and straw by the Indian women of the Chinook tribe, and then placed by their side similar articles wrought by the Chinese, and we were astonished at the similarity—we may almost say identity of texture, figures and make-up of these articles—the one produced in China and the other in Oregon. Anyone seeing them would decide at once that they were all the work of the same race of people. The two races are enough alike physiognomically to claim the same origin. There is no more difference than we would naturally expect between the people of the same race who reside in a densely populated country and those who have lived the wild, nomadic life of the American savage. This is a theory that will bear investigation. There is one other discovery that has recently been made with regard to these two races. There is an old Indian named Thomas McKay, or as he proudly calls himself, "Wyanashet," the chief of the Klicitots. The old man is supposed to be over 100 years old. He is now living on the Philanook Hills, at the head of the Nestuggah river. He hunts deer in the season and occasionally comes down to the "settlements" to sell his deerskins and fresh venison, and to beg a little provisions, including whisky and tobacco, to take to his lonely cabin in the hills. One day old Wyanashet came to the town of McMinnville, all crippled up with the rheumatism. It was a terrible sight to see the once powerful leader of the great tribe so broken down that he could scarcely hobble on two canes. Some kind hearted white man gave him a bottle of the Great German Remedy, St. Jacobs Oil. After a good deal of persuasion and explanation the old chief accepted the medicine and applied it to his old crippled limbs, and in three weeks "McKay" came down from the mountains with all the vigor of renewed youth. Exclaiming, "Hyas close Hyu muck-a-muck," "White man's medicine heep good," he made an old fashioned war dance with the magic bottle of St. Jacobs Oil in his hand. We learn that at some of the reservations the Oil is used with wonderful efficacy. Now comes the other race, Mow Lee, who runs a store on Second street, was similarly used up with rheumatism, and all efforts of the best Chinese doctors were in vain to give relief. He rushed to the drug store and asked for the best "Melican man heep good medicine for lame leg and lame shoulder." The druggist knowing the popularity of St. Jacobs Oil, gave him the best remedy known, and the Chinaman was soon cured. If this does not go a step farther in showing that the two races are identical, it does prove that the Great German Remedy is applicable to all nations and all races of the earth. It is good for man and it is good for beast. It is good in all climates, and relieves suffering everywhere. Like the great English Government, it can be much more emphatically said of it that the "sun never sets on the dominions" of its benificence and blessings. Our druggists of Portland say that the call for this remedy is not confined to any class of people or any condition of society. The rich man in his mansion, the poor in the hut; the merchant in his counting room, and the workman at his toil; the farmer and the drover—all are purchasers of the Great German Remedy. The testimonials would fill volumes. We have time to give only a few.

Mrs. Mary Lee, at No. 13 Fifth street, says she uses it in her large family. One of her sisters suffered with violent pains in her feet. She was relieved at once. Captain John Malone, who lives on his farm five miles east of Portland, was all crippled up with rheumatism. The first bottle of St. Jacobs Oil helped him; the second did still better, and before he had used up half a dozen bottles the most obstinate attack be ever knew yielded completely to the remedy.

Thomas Jones of Washington county was taking home a bottle for his wife. On the road he was seized with a violent toothache. It was too dark to go back to Portland to have the tooth extracted. In very desperation he took out the bottle of St. Jacobs Oil and applied it plentifully to the inside and outside of his mouth, using his handkerchief as a bandage. By the time he reached home, the pain was subdued, and what is most remarkable, the ugly customer has never troubled him since. He says a neighbor of his had a very severe attack of neuralgia, and one bottle effectually cured the aggravating pains. Mr. Jones says his wife uses it for almost all the pains the flesh is heir to, and always finds relief.

D. S. Mooney running on various coast and river crafts, uses it for neuralgia and always finds relief.

Peter Stanwick of 241 Sherman street has suffered years and years with rheumatism, and tried all the known remedies, and suffered many things from many physicians; the St. Jacobs Oil has cured him. And so goes the word, "all along the line." First pain, then anxiety for relief, and then resort to the wonderful substance whose surprising efficacy has been so fully testified to above.

A ROUGH GUESS.

The guessing season has begun, and in order to post gentlemen who have bets to make, we give them the results of a half hour's figuring of three well informed politicians this morning. They expressed the opinion that the Democrats will have to gather up a majority of 600 votes to come down to the Sink of the Humboldt with or they cannot win. Powning will run ahead of his ticket in Storey and can safely count on 100 majority. The vote there will be closer than most folks believe. On a close calculation it is not likely that 2,500 votes will be cast and the complexion of the register shows that it will be very evenly divided. In Ormsby Powning expects to run behind, but he will be stronger on election day than he is to-day. The ticket will get over 150 majority. In Washoe it will be 150 majority; in Esmeralda 100, and in Douglas and Lyon 50 each. If the Republicans of the Great East can hold their own, those of the small west will make a majority. Governor Kinkead had a majority of 527 and Daggett 160 more.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

Judge Field's Escape from an Infernal Machine.

NEW YORK, October 5.

The Graphic's Washington special says: The approaching session of the Supreme Court of the United States, which begins next Monday, was the means to-day of unearthing an incident in the history of Associate Justice Stephen J. Field which has probably not yet been published. Passing down the avenue, your correspondent was called by a dealer in fire-arms, sporting traps and other paraphernalia, and asked if he had seen the infernal machine that had been sent to Judge Field. He was taken into the rear of the store and a case of daguerreotypes was discovered lying upon the counter. "Examine this," said the dealer, "and tell me what you think of it." A close inspection showed that concealed in this case were ten metallic cartridges, very neatly imbedded in wax. An ordinary piece of sand paper was connected with the hasp of the case, which if opened from the front would cause ignition of a bundle of matches. The case, however, had been opened from the back and the infernal instrument had failed to accomplish its design. A clipping from a newspaper pasted in the case detailed an account of a decision by Judge Field regarding the title of certain property in San Francisco, and it is supposed that the machine was the contrivance of some disappointed litigant. Further inquiry showed that the package came by mail, but was regarded with suspicion by the inmates of Judge Field's residence, and the parcel was placed over night in a pail of water. Afterwards, it was pried open from behind and the deadly nature of its contents divulged. Had any one forced the clasp open, as is the custom in handling small cases of this kind, nothing short of a miracle could have prevented the discharge of the metallic cartridges.

A Poet's Widow Wants Damages.

PHILADELPHIA, October 5.

Mrs. Catharine Realf, wife of Richard Realf, the well-known poet whose tragic death by suicide in the San Francisco Mint four years ago was the theme of such general comment both in this country and in England at the time, to-day appeared in Judge Mitchell's court as plaintiff in a suit against J. B. Lippincott & Co. to recover damages for an alleged libelous statement concerning herself in the biography of her husband, written by Rossitur Johnson and printed in Lippincott's Magazine in March 1879.

A Broken-up Comet.

CINCINNATI, October 5.

Prof. Wilson of the Cincinnati observatory corroborates the statement coming from Nashville of the separation of the nucleus of the comet this morning into three equal fragments. His estimate of their size and distance apart agrees with that made at Nashville. The disturbance makes no difference in the appearance of the comet to the naked eye.

Struck by Lightning.

NEW YORK, October 4.

James Stainters, a lineman in the employ of the Brush Electric Light Company, received a shock from a line he was adjusting to-day, and was almost instantly killed. The skin on both hands was hanging in strips, as if seared off with a hot iron.

Death on the Rail.

PITTSBURG, October 5.

Early this morning a collision occurred at Linden Station on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad between two freight trains. Conductor Puffner lost a leg and brakeman Sanders was killed.

WESTERN TELEGRAMS.

Suicide—Framers of a New Charter.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 5.

Frank Hanson, well-known along the water-front, where he sold newspapers, committed suicide on Eureka dock this morning by shooting himself through the head. He left a letter attributing all his trouble to Dewitt Conkling, a resident of Shelter Island, New York, who took him from an orphan asylum and for a trifling offense beat him and crippled him for life.

The Election Commission to-day resolved to include in the election proclamation a call for an election of fifteen freeholders to frame a city charter.

New Gold Fields.

VICTORIA, October 4.

Gold diggings that pay from $5 to $10 a day to the hands, has been discovered in Cariboo on Bridge river in Lillooet District. Indians have taken out $4,000. Some pieces weigh $10. An Indian chief has sold his claim to whites for $1,200. It is believed new and rich gold fields have been discovered.

A FINE OPENING

The Republican Candidates Take Virginia City by Storm.

According to the Enterprise, the meeting at Virginia on Tuesday was a great success. When Mr. Chubbuck arose to introduce HON. C. C. POWNING, the Republican nominee for Congress, but was interrupted by an outbreak of enthusiastic applause, it was evident that the people expected Mr. Powning to make the speech of the evening, and in this they were not disappointed. Mr. Powning congratulated the people upon the fact that they manifested by their presence upon so inclement an evening their interest in public and political affairs. The elective franchise he held to be the choicest blessing a great people can enjoy. That some abuse this privilege is to be regretted, but this was only an additional reason that every thinking man, every lover of his country, should see that his ballot was cast in the interest of good government and the right. There must always be two great contending parties, and he was one who believed that under the United States would advance to the first place among the great nations of the earth. In her history there would be no brighter pages than those volumes written by the Republican party and sealed with the blood of such martyr patriots as Abraham Lincoln and James A. Garfield. [Applause.] Mr. Powning referred to the recent elections in Oregon, Vermont and Maine to show that the people still retain their faith in the greatness and integrity of the Republican party—the party that saved and preserved the Union. He said no one could call to mind a single Democrat in Congress, or on this coast, who had made a great speech or who had put forth any noble personal effort for the restriction of Chinese immigration, while such men as Hon. A. A. Sargent and Hon. John F. Miller, of California, and Hon. William Woodburn, Hon. Thomas Wren and Hon. John P. Jones, of this State, have devoted years to the matter. Mr. Powning was applauded for saying that if elected he would use his best endeavors to secure the passage of what is known as the Reagan bill, which is intended to regulate inter-State railroad traffic.

Mr. Powning called attention to the fact that the Republican platform advocates the establishment of a postal telegraph, and that to Senator Jones is due the present favorable position occupied by silver. Also, that while

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

Approves the payment of pensions to the men who fought to preserve the Union, the Democratic platform maintains silence on that point. He said that at any rate and all times he was willing to go out of his way to accommodate or assist any of the veterans of the Mexican war or war of the rebellion. "If I vote for any River and Harbor bill," said Mr. Powning, I will see that Nevada gets $50,000 or $100,000 out of the big sack to improve her rivers, such as the Truckee, Walker and others. I would also try to get $75,000 or $100,000 appropriated for the erection of government buildings in this State, where the offices of the Government officials could be located. But my pet scheme — the one before which every other scheme which I have ever advocated for the benefit of the people sinks into insignificance — is to secure legislation whereby the general government shall donate to the State of Nevada every acre of land within her borders. The funds arising from the sale of these lands shall be devoted not only to the improvement of the natural water ways of the State, but to the construction of vast aqueducts and reservoirs, and the sinking of artesian wells, so that the many thousands of fertile acres that now lie unoccupied may be irrigated and brought under cultivation.

"You will pardon me, I know," said Mr. Powning, "if for a few moments I devote my attention to the idle vaporings of a diseased mind." The people evidently knew that he was about to speak of the Evening Chronicle, for there was a rustle of expectation that grew into a round of applause. "Notwithstanding the assertion that there is no personal animosity against me, yet it seems that I am a candidate against whom all the filth and slime of the campaign is to be hurled by the Democratic press. It has not been said that I am intemperate or dishonest. It is not said that I have ever betrayed the people, or that I have been unfaithful to any public trust." He answered the charge that he is a rat, and explained that he was not at home when

THE DALY ARTICLE

Was written, and closed by saying: "I will ask any candid person who is familiar with my career—from the time when I was a boy carrying drills in the Heuston mine at Grass Valley, as a newsboy on the train running into Sacramento, as brakeman on the railroad between this city and Carson, or as a printer struggling to make a living in Reno, and not living on quail on toast and on fancy roasts, but on corned beef and cabbage and pork and beans—I will ask any such person, I say, whether it is possible for them to believe that I am not fairly and fully in sympathy with the working classes, and whether I could be anything but true to them and their interests, under any and all circumstances." [Applause] Mr. Powning said that he invited the closest investigation of his career, private and public, and that he would in the future as he had in the past, so conduct himself that no citizen would ever have occasion to regret having voted for him.

At the close of his address Mr. Powning was uproariously applauded.

AT THE PAVILION.

A Grand Display in Every Department—Nevada Coming to the Front.

The Trustees of the Society have reason to congratulate themselves on the exhibition in every department at the Pavilion. It is certainly the best ever made and a credit to the State as well as exhibitors. In the center of the upper room the San Francisco Soap Company have a good exhibit of soaps. A. Lindley, one of Reno's leading merchants, makes a good display of canned goods, extracts, cheese, etc.

Sylvester, Moye & Co. of Stockton have a fine display of furniture, musical instruments, etc. Among the most notable articles of their display are their magnificent pianos, two organs and several very beautiful little house desks, two "cheffoniers," very convenient and useful for the chamber, besides being a very beautiful piece of furniture; solid black walnut bed room sets with the latest styles of bureaus and combination wash stands. The dressing cases have large plate-glass mirrors and marble tops. On the lower floor this firm shows several cottage sets of imitation oak and walnut made of kiln-dried Oregon pine and Oregon ash. One of the most useful articles they exhibit is a kitchen cabinet. The upper department of the upper part of the cabinet is provided with shelves for dishes. Immediately below the shelves is a drawer for knives, forks, spoons, etc.; also a drawer for table linen. Just below the drawers is a shelf for soda, cream-tartar, etc., under which are four compartments for flour and meal, covered, when closed, with the bread board. The board is so arranged that it can be opened out into a large kitchen table. Below this are two drawers for rice, tapioca, spices, etc. The whole thing when closed does not occupy more than 2x3½ feet and is very complete. The cabinet can be bought for $20, and that is certainly very cheap for so useful an article. Mr. Moye, a member of the firm is at the pavilion and will take any orders left with him.

F. Levy & Bros. make a good showing of dry and fancy goods and hosiery. Their exhibit is in the west end of the building.

The south wall is covered with quilts, coverlets and rugs. In the south show case is a nice collection of cut flowers of Nevada production. Merklinger has a display of harness and saddles.

Warden Garrard, of the State Prison, exhibits samples of the goods he makes at that institution. The prison convicts make quite a showing of stone prayer books—the only kind used in Nevada's penitentiary—work-boxes, picture-frames, silk bridles, etc. In this case is a choice collection of fancy work, besides the display of millinery goods.

The California Syrup of Figs Company show enough physic to regulate the coast, if properly taken.

Mrs. Julia Prescott displays a large and very beautiful stock of millinery goods, the best on exhibition.

Mrs. Forster, of Carson, has a very creditable showing of millinery and fancy goods.

Cook & Butler, Reno, have a case of work in photography.

The north case is filled with fancy work of all descriptions, and the display is proof conclusive that Nevada ladies are not behind in needle-work. Ladies' embroidered under garments and baby fixings are in great variety.

The north wall is covered with works of art. Mrs. W. R. Jenvey makes a splendid exhibition of oil paintings and bric-a-brac work. Mrs. W. A. Walker has a choice selection of paintings and fancy work; also Mrs. R. H. Lindsay. T. F. Laycock has several landscapes, portraits and crayon work. Miss Lou Adkison, Mrs. Torp and Miss Mell Wright, Virginia, each display a beautiful collection of paintings. The exhibition on the first floor is creditable and will be referred to to-morrow.

Truckee Items.

[Truckee Republican October 4.]

The Tallac House has been closed for the season.

The stage line between Sierraville and Downieville, which was hauled off last week, has again been established.

John Hughes, who killed Jacob Warren at Downieville last week, by crushing his head with a stone, has been bound over for trial in the sum of $7,000. He readily furnished bail.

Mrs. C. B. Crocker, Mrs. Crouch and Mrs. A. L. Bender came down from Idlewild Monday. They brought their ponies and other domestic animals down with them, and will not return again this season.

Work has been suspended on the new round house for the past day or two on account of the storm.

Travel to the lake keeps up, notwithstanding the unpropitious weather. Several went up yesterday morning.

The insurance adjusters have settled with Thompson & Stone, by paying them $1,450, for the loss of their shingle mill.

If the new passenger tariff is finally decided to be four cents a mile, the fare from Truckee to Sacramento will be $4 76.

On the Warpath.

Hon. E. Strother, the Republican candidate for Governor, Uncle George Tufly, on the ticket for State Treasurer, and J. M. Dormer, the next Secretary of State, accompanied by J. A. Stephens, left this morning for the great east. The quartette made lots of friends here last night.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Republican Mass Meeting at Carson Last Night.

The gathering at the Opera House last night, says the Appeal, the enthusiasm of the multitude and the eloquence of the speakers, made a pleasing picture which gladdened every Republican. The reception given the candidates was hearty, genuine and satisfactory. The greeting to Mr. Powning was a royal rebuke to the attacks of the Chronicle upon his past life, and if indications amount to anything our next Congressman will go out of Ormsby county with 300 majority, along with Messrs. Strother, Leonard, Tufly, Hallock, Dormer and Harlow and the balance of the ticket. Mr. Powning's speech was sharp and pithy, and W. W. Bishop delivered one of those original speeches of his, which rang with the eloquence of the true orator. It glowed with flashes of the speaker's peculiar wit, and was full of caustic criticism and aggressive logic. The work of "bringing down the house" was a regular business of Mr. Bishop.

Hay and Cattle.

The Greenville Bulletin says the abundance of hay in Honey Lake valley this season has made it cheaper than for some years past. It is now selling in the Tule Confederacy at from $5 to $6 per ton, against $6 to $8 a ton previously. As the price of beef is steadily increasing in the lower country and Eastern markets, the Honey Lake cattle owners ought to make considerable profit. Mr. Byers will feed about 1,500 head on his place this Winter. On most of the ranches, however, the hay is sold to men who make a business of buying hay in the northern counties and Oregon and taking cattle there to fatten. From 3,000 to 4,000 are fattened in the district every year.

Energy and Honesty.

An energetic business man knows how to build up a business and retain customers. Abraham Bros. are doing a very extensive trade, and, being energetic and careful, are securing patrons from all parts of the State. Their stock of clothing has been purchased by a careful and experienced buyer, everything comprising their stock being of the latest style and best quality. Consequently they are steadily increasing their business as a result. Second, they come as near living up to the golden rule as any firm in America, and their honesty and efforts to please are appreciated by their patrons. Once a customer always a customer, when once you patronize the White House.

To-Day's Tournament.

In the ladies' tournament Miss M Smith, Miss A. Finlayson, Mrs. J. A. Ferguson, Mrs. J. Galt and Miss Chrissy Andrews of Reno and Misses A. L. and M. E. Clarke of Greeneville contended. In the first turn Miss Annie Clarke, who was riding without a saddle, was crowded off her horse and fell to the ground. In leaping the hurdle Miss Ella Clarke slipped off when her horse refused to take the hurdle, and Mrs. Galt fell heavily once. They were quickly righted, however, and no one was the worse for the little accidents. The ladies ride again on Monday.

The Races.

The races to-morrow will be those set for Tuesday. First—Mile heats, three in five, in which Tump Winston, Alonzo Hayward, Clairmont, Carlisle, Belle Spencer and Frank Moscow are entered. Second—Mile and repeat between Nellie and Fred Arnold. The races will commence where they left off and will be followed according to the programme. Next Saturday there will be a stock parade, and on Sunday there will be special races. The ladies' tournament will be concluded on Monday when the prizes will be awarded.

Roll of Honor.

The following is the roll of honor for the school at Brown's station on the V. & T. R. R., Miss M. Richards teacher: Laura Brown, Charlie Brown, Nellie Brown, Sadie Wright, Fannie Wright, Jimmie Wright, Dora Clow, May Clow, Dick Clow, Gracie Clow, Julia Clow, Bennie Howard, Charles Davenport, Lee Harden, Evie Harden, Mamie Harden Daisy Harden, Walter Gammans.

Pure Milk.

It is the pride of A. T. Rice's heart to deliver in a gentlemanly manner—from neat and tasty wagons propelled by fine teams—pure, undefiled milk from No. 1 cows grazed on No. 1 alfalfa. Witness his tasty outfits, driven to the doors of all who desire rich, nourishing milk that gladdens your heart and makes fur grow on your breast.

Cattle at Pasture.

At Big Bend, about sixty miles from Reno, there are about 2,000 head of cattle pasturing, and at the sink of the Carson Bailey and others have 6,000 head. It is said that black-leg has attacked them. A GAZETTE reporter was so informed.

Carson Mint Coinage.

The following is the result of the coining operations at the Carson Mint during September: Double eagles, $61,000; eagles, $67,600; half eagles, $44,000; standard dollars, $75,000. Total, $197,000.

THE WINNING NUMBERS.

Result of the Drawing at Mt St. Mary's Last Night.

The prize scheme projected by the Sisters of Mt. St. Mary's school was impartially carried out, and last night there was a drawing, with the following result. But one ticket was sold in Reno, and that proved a winner:

Ticket No. 219—Sixty acres of good farming land in Nevada, drawn by Mr. Holtzborn, of 308 Elk street, Buffalo, New York.

No. 2879—House and lot in Reno, Nevada, drawn by Mrs. Anna Burk, 354 Poplinton street, corner of Mulberry, Baltimore city, Maryland.

No. 3013—Pair of carriage horses, drawn by Miss Mary Whelan, of Reno.

No. 1163—Piano, drawn by Mrs. J. Clements, of 713 Taylor street, San Francisco.

A Beautiful Exhibition of Skill.

Miss Retta Hooper, 10 years of age, was ruled out of the tournament on account of her age. A purse of $25 was raised and the little girl mounted her pony and flew around the track in good style, after the other ladies left the track. The horse she rode is Richardson's Lyman Brown, a runner from Carson Sink. As the beautiful animal and his charming young rider flew by the stand a perfect storm of applause went up from the crowd. She rides with perfect ease, and the horse seemed to feel even more enthusiasm than if he was in a race. He was led to the score by his owner, and as soon as he was turned loose he flew away in long and rapid leaps, with little Retta leaning forward, holding a tight rein on him and riding like a jockey.

Wants Everybody to Know It.

I was put off the track to-day and expect to be kicked out of town or out of existence within a short time by a few who have tried to do it during the past three months. I don't leave, neither do I die that way, and shall stay here in spite of all the cliques combined against me. So long as they continue to fight me they will get it back. I am ready to meet the whole town and State at large on the question. Namely: The Fourth of July and the race track, which they claim to be the cause of all this trouble.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

RESOLVED, That the honor and glory of the Republic, its continued peace, prosperity and progress will be best served by the perpetuation and continued success of the Republican party. We declare our fidelity to its principles as expressed in the Chicago platform of 1880, and as further embodied in its great history from its organization to the present time.

RESOLVED, That in the tragic death of President Garfield our country has suffered a deplorable loss, and the Republican party mourns for one who consecrated a noble and heroic life to the vindication of its great purposes.

RESOLVED, That we have faith in the prudent and sagacious administration of President Arthur and believe it will result in promoting the best interests of the country.

RESOLVED, That the presence in our midst of a servile race of aliens, incapable of assimilating with our institutions, is a perpetual menace to all classes of society. The relief extended to our people by the passage of a law excluding the Chinese by a Republican Congress and approved by a Republican President is a genuine cause of satisfaction. We are in favor of strenuously enforcing the provisions of said law, and we pledge the Republican party to labor now and henceforth to secure such further legislation as will permanently exclude the Chinese.

RESOLVED, That we recognize the paramount importance of maintaining unimpaired the free public school system of the State. We shall defend it against sectarian, political or other improper influences, and we favor such further legislation as the condition and wants of the common schools of the State may require. As free institutions they should be so conducted as to satisfy poor and rich alike, and upon this principle we urge the adoption of some system by which this State shall furnish the text books at the lowest possible figure.

RESOLVED, That owing to the remote position of Nevada from the sea-board and the entire absence of navigable waters and competing lines of railroads to and from commercial centers, we demand from Congress such wholesome and effective legislation as will place our people on terms of equality in respect to transportation charges with communities specially favored by railroad monopolies.

RESOLVED, That we pledge the Republican party of Nevada to such a course of enlightened legislation as will extend to railroad and other corporations doing business in this State the same protection and the same rights before the law as is accorded to individuals—no more and no less. And further, that the Republican party favors and demands at the hands of the State Legislature legislation regulating and equalizing freights and fares on all railroads within this State.

RESOLVED, That we are in favor of the Government of the United States establishing a postal telegraph service, and operating the same in connection with the Postoffice Department.

RESOLVED, That the coinage of silver should be placed upon the same basis as that of gold, and we invoke early Congressional legislation to that end.

RESOLVED That it is the duty of the Legislature to enact such laws as will result in the purification of the jury box and better promote the administration of justice.

RESOLVED That it is the duty of the next Legislature to pass such laws as shall reduce the expenses of State and county governments to the lowest possible limits consistent with the requirements of the public service.

RESOLVED, That the earnest attention of Congress and the State Legislature is directed to the subject of codifying the laws relating to the location and working of mineral lands to the end that legitimate prospecting and the development of our chief source of wealth may best be promoted.

RESOLVED, That the appropriation by a Republican Congress for the payment of pensions to invalid Union soldiers and to the veterans of the Mexican war is the discharge of a debt of honor and law a generous remembrance of our country's defenders in its supreme hour of peril.

RESOLVED, That in the judgment of this convention the Legislature, when next convened, should make the necessary provisions for a convention to revise the entire constitution of the State; that in providing for such convention well-guarded restrictions should be made, defining the number of delegates, their compensation, and fixing the duration of its session; that we believe such a convention is imperatively demanded by the urgent necessities of the times, and among others for the following cogent reasons: First—to change the fundamental law so as to secure as nearly as may be the equal and uniform taxation on all property subjected thereto. Second—to regulate and render equal and just all the rates of passage and freights upon all railroads doing business in this State, to the end that our leading industries may be fostered and not oppressed, built up and not overthrown; and third—to secure the reduction of the expenses of the State to the minimum by dispensing with all unnecessary officers and employes, rendering more speedy and economical the collection of public revenue, and the general administration of justice.
